

6516206242.txt

It would be unfair and a mistake to limit the services that Satellite Radio provides. I live in a remote area and at times Satellite is the only radio I can receive. With the distances I travel, it is important for me to know weather and traffic conditions well in advance of the time when I am due to arrive in an area. I can make informed decisions about my route and schedule while actually on the road.